

Federal Housing Finance Agency
Office of Inspector General

CliftonLarsenAllen, LLP's
Independent Audit of the Federal Housing Finance Agency's Privacy Program – 2014

The Federal Housing Finance Agency (FHFA) Office of Inspector General (OIG) issued the subject report on September 26, 2014. Section 522 of the Consolidated Appropriations Act of 2005 requires the Inspector General of each agency to periodically conduct a review of the agency's implementation of the requirements of Section 522, including the agency's privacy program. OIG contracted with CliftonLarsenAllen to perform this audit.

AUDIT OBJECTIVE: The objective of this audit was to assess the FHFA privacy program and implementation, including compliance with associated statutory and regulatory requirements concerning protection of personally identifiable information. Specifically, the audit determined whether FHFA implemented comprehensive privacy and data protection procedures and accurately reported on its use of privacy information.

Because information in this report could be abused to circumvent FHFA's internal controls, it has not been released publicly.
